Description:

In the new edge-of-your-seat thriller from New York Times–bestselling author Alex Kava, Ryder Creed, his K-9 search-and-rescue dogs, and FBI agent Maggie O'Dell find themselves at the center of a dire and mysterious case. In Chicago, a young man jumps from his thirtieth-story hotel room; along the Missouri river, a hunter and his son stumble upon a lake whose surface is littered with snow geese, all of them dead; and in southern Alabama, Ryder Creed and his search-and-rescue dog Grace find the body of a young woman who went missing in the Conecuh

National Forest...and it appears she filled her pockets with rocks and walked into the river. Before long Ryder Creed and FBI profiler Maggie O'Dell will discover the ominous connection among these mysterious deaths. What they find may be the most prolific killer the United States has ever known. From the Hardcover edition.

I really like Alex Kavas novels, especially the Ryder Creed / Maggie O'Dell series. I looked forward to this latest installment. But after 328 pages the book just sort of ended. Nothing was resolved, Creed and Maggie are in an isolation unit, and the book just...ended. If this was just Part One, they should have advertised it as such. I found this very unsatisfying, and therefore cannot recommend this book until the rest of it is published.
